

ST PETER'S CE PRIMRY SCHOOL, HESWALL

2nd May 2017

Dear Parents,

RE: Year 6 SATs Tests week commencing 8th May 2017

As I am sure you will be aware, Year 6 pupils will sit the national end of Key Stage 2 SATs (Statutory Assessment Tests) next week; these are important tests and will be a measure of all that your child has achieved through their hard work and effort over the last four years.

Please ensure that your child arrives promptly at school each day in order that tests can start at the allotted times. If your child is unwell, please notify the school as early as possible: it may be possible for us to arrange for them to take the test at a later date if we are given prior warning of their absence and they are well enough to return to school within the timeframe allowed.

Below you will find a copy of the timetable of tests that pupils will take each day; there will be NO tests on Friday 12th May.
